10:00-11:15 #1 Breakout Session

(1) The ABCs of Services for Little Ones in Early Intervention and Early Childhood Special Education

If your baby, toddler or preschooler has a disability or developmental delay, you need this training! Learn all about eligibility, services, parent involvement, and how to think positively about your child's bright future!

(2) The IEP: What You Need to Know

The Individualized Education Program (IEP) describes your child's special education needs and services. Learn more about how the IEP is developed, and how your involvement is critical!

(3) The IEP in Middle and High School!

Moving into middle and high school are big transitions! Learn about steps you can take to begin preparing for life after school!

(4) El IEP: ¿Qué Necesita Saber?

Recibe su hijo apoyo en la escuela, tiene usted reuniones con los maestros y terapeutas en la escuela, ¿le entregan un cuadernillo con información después de la junta? Entonces su hijo tiene un Programa de Educación Individualizado (IEP), el cuál describe las necesidades y servicios de educación especial de su hijo/a. ¡Obtenga más información sobre cómo se desarrolla el IEP y porqué su participación es fundamental!

11:30-12:30 #2 Breakout Session

(1) Transitioning to Kindergarten

Kindergarten is a new adventure for families! Learn about the transition process, your important role on the team and the Individualized Education Plan (IEP).

(2) Assistive Technology: Creating Possibilities

AT is changing lives! Learn what it is and how AT can create access to communication, curriculum and more!!

(3) Transition to Adulthood!

Turning 18 is a big milestone for youth experiencing disability! Learn about: Self-determination, Community Transition Programs, Employment, and Disability services.

(4) Planeando el Camino con un Perfil de una Página!

Cómo crear una herramienta individualizada basada en las capacidades de su hijo/a: un perfil de una página es una excelente manera de presentar a su hijo en la escuela y en su comunidad!

FACT Oregon Regional Learning Summit Session Descriptions

1:45-2:45 #3 Resilience and the Brain's Hidden Response to Stress

The brain's response to stressful environments has powerful impact on learning. We typically focus on stopping behavior. In this workshop, we will look at the brain's hidden response to stress and provide practical supports.

Shauna Signorini Bio:

Shauna is the parent of two young women, one of whom experiences disability. She knows firsthand how important it is for young people to have the right supports. Besides resilience training, she provides peer support for families all around Oregon. She is a national speaker on mental health and self-care. She enjoys time with her family on Mt. Hood and being in the water.
